OUTLINES.

Conclusive evidence having been obtained that the Cleveland letter published in the N. Y. Times, predicting victory for Taft is a forgery, Broughton Bladenburg, who furnished the spurious letter was arrested in Dayton, Ohio, yesterday and remained in jail last night. His attorney is making efforts to obtain a writ of habeas corpus——The Southern State Commissioners of Agriculture, which have been in session this week at Nashville, Tenn., adjourned yesterday ——J. E. Goldburg, a member of a large dry goods store at Detroit, Mich., was roughly handled by 1,500 people because of indifferences between him and his chauffeur——Dr. Erwin J. Cook, committed suicide in New York yesterday rather than face trial on the charge of criminal practice——Negotiations are still being carried on between Austria-Hungary and Turkey and it is believed that the present agitation will soon die out——Forest fires in Pennsylvania yesterday caused the explosion of two nitroglycerine magazines, causing a loss estimated at $15,000——Both of the Presidential candidates will speak at Port Chester, N. Y.——Subscriptions to the Democratic campaign fund made on Wednesday amount to over ten thusand dollars——Bryan spent yesterday making speeches in West Virginia——The Revenue cutter Onandago saves the lives of the crew of a coal barge bound from Baltimore to Portsmouth, N. C.——Committeeman Conners says evidence has been discovered of attempts by Republicans to cast thousands of illegal votes in the upper part of New York State ——John W. Kern has been called home by the serious illness of his 8-year old son, who is suffering from an attack of infantile paralysis——Pernicious activity in politics brings several office-holders to grief——Taft spent yesterday touring the State of Indiana speaking chiefly to farmers and working men——There have been fearfully heavy rains in several of the Western States.——New York markets: Money on call steady at 1 1-4 to 1 1-2 per cent., ruling rate 1 1-4, closing bid 1 1-4, offered 1 1-2. Cotton closed quiet, 6 points advance, middling uplands 9.40, middling gulf 9.65. Rosin quiet. Turpentine easy 39 12. Flour quiet, but firm. Wheat firm, No. 2, red 109 to 109 1-2 elevator. Corn steady No. 2, 77 1-8 nominal elevator. Oats steady, mixed 52 to 52 1-2.

Taft ought to have known that he could not keep up with Bryan in the matter of speech making.

The Annis-Hains case bids fair to be a very revolting exposure of immorality in high army circles.

Kentucky sports can sympathize with those of New York on the deprivation of privilege of betting on horse racing.

The Republicans had better do their shouting now, for they will not feel like it when the election returns begin to come in.

Wonder how many politicians are expecting that it is their correspondence with Archbold that Hearst is going to read tomorrow night?

It would not surprise us to hear that the Democrats are claiming Vermont and Pennsylvania and the Republicans most of the States of the South.

If Haskell gets a judgment against Hearst the millionaire it is said he cannot force a payment for the latter has no property in his own name.

It is to be hoped the Governor of Tennessee will be able to hang some of the men who committed that horrible murder at Reel Foot Lake Tuesday night.

We thought Roosevelt would not be able to keep off the stump during the present campaign. Rumor says he will be heard from in New York city next week.

The Republicans are not at all uneasy about the results in Ohio. Of course not. They are rushing a score or so of their best speakers into that State just for the fun of the thing.

Another New York lawyer finds his way into the penitentiary. He is just where he should be. When he gets back to his practice he will be more careful how he deals with widows' property.

That Georgia negro who shot two policemen had as well resign himself to his fate, for his hanging is as sure as was that of the Alabama negro who assaulted a white woman a day or so ago.

We are glad to see that the leaders of Democracy in this county are making earnest efforts to poll a big vote in the November election. Every Democrat in the county should go to the polls in order that New Hanover may have her proper representation in the State and district conventions. The only way she can get this is to vote her full strength in the Gubernatorial election.

HONOR OF MR. HOGUE

AT THE COLONIAL INN

Elegant Supper Served and High Testimonial Given to Guest of Honor. Addresses From Number of Prominent Wilmingtonians.

A strikingly handsome testimonial was paid to the Rev. R. W. Hogue, the retiring rector of Saint James Episcopal parish, of this city, by representative men of all denominations in the delightful banquet given last night at the Colonial Inn by the Brotherhood of Saint James in the nature of a farewell to one who has labored with and among them so faithfully and so effectively during the past six years.

Covers were laid for about sixty and the banquet included not only members of the Brotherhood but representatives of quite every denomination in the city and many with no church affiliation at all. In story and address these men testified to their sincere appreciation of Mr. Hogue and their great regret at his departure. It was a popular expression towards a popular man, one loved and esteemed by all classes and conditions of men. The tables were beautifully decorated by a number of lady friends of the Brotherhood, plants and flowers having been used in endless profusion while all about the walls of the handsome dining room were festoons of Southern smilax and other evergreens. Excellent music was furnished during the evening by the Quartette of Saint James, composed of Messrs. Joseph and Greene Fenley, W. C. W. Krafft and H. R. Bates, with Mr. G. L. Johnson, choirmaster of Saint James, as accompanist.

It was 9:30 o'clock before the banquet doors swung wide and the guests were bidden to places at the festive board. Each guest was presented with a copy of a limited edition of a very handsome souvenir booklet bearing an excellent likeness of Mr. Hogue, a brief sketch of his career, resolutions recently passed by the vestry upon his resignation and some information in regard to the Brotherhood. Besides these were dainty menu cards reading as follows:

New River Oysters Kalamooza Celery

Creme de Volaille a la Reine

Sliced Tomatoes Queen Olives

Baked Stripped Bass, Maitre d'Hotel
Pommes de terre, French Fried

Turkey Cranberry Sauce
Sweetbread Croquettes aux Petit Pois
Asparagus au Beurre Noir

Chicken Salad, Mayonnaise
Lettuce Hearts

Neapolitan Ice Cream Assorted Cake

Fruit

Edam Wafers Coffee

The banquet was served in excellent manner by the management of the Colonial and the guests were delighted with the service. Mr. Greene Fenley presided as toastmaster and most delightfully did he fill the exactions functions of that position upon an occasion of the kind. In opening the banquet he said his only regret was that the Brotherhood could not have all the friends of Mr. Hogue present, but that were impossible for there was no hall in the city large enough to hold the entire population of Wilmington. He read a very tender letter from the beloved Rev. Dr. Jas. Carmichael, expressing his regret at being unable to be present on account of his being on a mission of mercy outside the city.

The toastmaster introduced as the first speaker, Mr. R. E. Tapp, director of the Brotherhood, who extended the guests a most cordial welcome and referred with feeling to the occasion of the banquet, paying a high tribute to his love and affection for Mr. Hogue, the true and consistent friend of the organization.

Mr. Hogue was next introduced and captivated the entire assemblage with a rhymthic composition he had just completed, greeting most pleasantly each and every guest and speaking of the emotions which arose in him at the manifestation of friendship be-

NIGHT RIDERS THWARTED

Arrest in Wake County Creates a Sensation—Aid of Governors Invoked to Stamp Out Increase of This Evil.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 22.—A threatened night rider outbreak in New Light township, Wake county, was nipped in the bud today by the arrest of C. B. Thompson, a well known farmer, charged with planning to burn the gin of W. S. Adams. Other barns and gins have been threatened, if owners did not stop ginning.

Editor Clarence H. Poe, of the Progressive Farmer, addressed another communication to all Governors of the Southern States today, urging the importance of rigid suppression of night riding wherever it crops out by offering rewards that will induce identification, and says farmers in many parts of the South are terrorized by the situation. Prompt methods are imperative.

GODWIN AND SLOCOMB

Congressional Candidates Spoke at Elizabethtown Wednesday Night.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Elizabethtown, N. C., Oct 22.—Hon. H. L. Godwin and Colonel A. H. Slocomb spoke here last night to a good crowd. Mr. Godwin made the first speech and discussed the past record of the two parties in the State and Nation in a masterly manner. He arraigned the Republican party for its past extravagance and corruption in the State and for its injustice and prejudice to the people of the South in the Nation.

Colonel Slocomb followed in an hour's speech in which he claimed that it was not in the province of candidates for Congress to discuss State issues and especially the dead past, yet he did admit that the dark record of the reconstruction period and admitted that the Democratic party was fully justified in passing the amendment in 1900.

He arraigned the Democratic party for demanding the repeal of the tariff on lumber and wood pulp, but Mr. Godwin in his rejoinder called his attention to the fact that Mr. Roosevelt had recommended this very thing. Mr. Slocomb preferred to be the only living example of a man whom office had always sought. Mr. Godwin pointed to the fact that Mr. Slocomb had made the race for Congress in 1902, had sought the office of Collector of Customs and had canvassed Cumberland county as a candidate for County Commissioner.

There were not more than ten Republicans present notwithstanding the fact that Superior Court is in session this week. Mr. Godwin received continued applause throughout his speech and there were three Republicans in the audience who slapped and stamped exuberantly when they thought their favorite had made a point. The result of the meeting is that the Democrats are more thoroughly aroused and determined to carry the county by the biggest majority ever polled.

NEGRO USED PISTOL.

Shot at Coast Line Engineer—Was Arrested Yesterday.

After being at large since the 10th of October, James Sanders, colored, charged with making a deliberate attempt to shoot Engineer H. M. Brandt, on the Coast Line yard in this city, was yesterday arrested at the Champion Compress by Officer Charles Wood and placed in the guard house to await trial in the police court today.

From the affidavit in the warrant it seems that the negro shot at Engineer Brandt without the slightest provocation. The assailiant was walking through the yards and pulling his pistol he fired through the cab of the engine. Engineer Brandt reprimanded him for his careless act, and he immediately renewed the fire. This caused the engineer to pull his pistol and also began shooting and the negro hurriedly fled. The latter was not seen again until the arrest yesterday morning. The trial will be in the police court at noon, and Brooke G. Emple, Esq., has been employed to represent the defendant.

FUNERAL OF CAPTAIN CORBIN.

Will be Conducted From Home of Dr. Koonce Today.

The funeral of Capt. C. C. Corbin, a brother-in-law of Mr. S. E. Koonce, of this city, whose remains arrived yesterday morning from Lincoln, Neb., where he died suddenly last Sunday at the home of his brother, while on a visit, will be held this morning at 11 o'clock from the residence of Dr. S. E. Koonce, No. 11 North Sixth street. Rev. C. G. J. Person, of Norfolk, Va., is expected to arrive this morning and conduct the services.

The remains were accompanied by the bereaved widow, Mrs. Corbin, from Lincoln, and other friends from the home of the deceased, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bass, of Harrisburg, Pa., and Miss Fannie Wallace, of Washington, D. C. The remains will be laid to rest in Oakdale cemetery.

HON. L. S. OVERMAN

SPEAKING CONCELLED

Northeast Rain Storm Prevented Appearance Last Night at Academy of Music—Solute by the Harbor Craft.

There was keen disappointment last night among the people of Wilmington generally that a northeast rain and wind storm that had prevailed all day forbade the appearance of Hon. Lee S. Overman in the Academy of Music to address the Democratic voters of the county.

For days and weeks the appearance of Mr. Overman here had been awaited with pleasure and it was not until the last minute that the local leaders surrendered to the violence of the elements. Mr. Overman had been slightly indisposed during the day and with the fact that the rain was coming down in sheets at the hour announced for the speaking left no alternative than a cancellation of the engagement.

As announced yesterday morning Mr. Overman arrived on the late train Wednesday night from Elizabethtown via Clarkton and was entertained at The Orton. Many of his personal friends and admirirs called on him there yesterday and were glad to extend to him a cordial welcome to the city by the sea for which he has done so much during his brief Senatorial career. An automobile ride and other courtesies had been planned in honor of him but a driving rain all day interferred with all these plans. At noon, however, in response to the communication directed to the harbor master of the port by Mr. Jas. Sprunt, chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage, a merry salute from all the harbor craft and vessels in port was given in unison in recognition of Mr. Overman's valiant service in securing for the Cape Fear bar a new and modern lightship to take the place of the one removed arbitrarily by the lighthouse Board and during the entire day, all ships in port were gayly decked with flags and colors in honor of the distinguished visitor's presence here.

Mr. Overman leaves on an early train today and if the weather will permit, he will speak at Clarendon, Columbus county, today and at Lumberton tonight. Tomorrow he will be at Maxton where the Democrats have prepared a great rally in his honor. It is more than regretted that he could not speak here.

REMINDER OF DAYS PAST.

Political Announcement in New Hanover in Campaign of 1878.

Magistrate J. H. Sykes yesterday showed a representative of the Star quite an interesting relic in the form of a Republican campaign "dodger" or political announcement made in New Hanover of date July 31st 1878. It is a quarter sheet poster with the usual spread-eagle proclaiming "the regular ticket" and announcing that Judge Russell, Gen. Abbott, Hon. W. P. Canaday and "Hon." Geo. W. Price, the latter a prominent negro magistrate here until six or eight years ago, would address the voters for the regular ticket at the New Market House in First ward. The speaking is by order of the Republican Executive Committee of which S. H. Manning was at that time chairman. The circular revives "fragrant memories" of political times in Wilmington about the date named in the circular.

TO WED IN NOVEMBER

Mr. T. Alex. Baxter, Formerly of This City, to Marry Miss Fitts.

Many Wilmington friends of Mr. Thomas Alexander Baxter, formerly of this city and chief clerk of The Orton, will be interested and pleased at the announcement contained in handsomely engraved invitations received yesterday as follows:

"Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Stallings request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their sister, Della Katherine Fitts to Mr. Thompson Alexander Baxter on Wednesday morning, the eleventh of November nineteen hundred and eight at eleven o'clock, Methodist Episcopal Church, Macon, North Carolina."

Mr. Baxter is now chief clerk for The Chamberlain Hotel, Old Point Comfort, Va., and his bride-elect is one of the most attractive young women of the State.

His Appointment Changed.

New Hanover Democrats and especially those identified with the labor interest are requested to note that a change has been made in the appointment of Mr. W. M. Tye to speak here and that he will come on the evening of Oct. 27th, instead of the 31st, as previously advertised. He speaks in Hamlet the evening before and goes to Raleigh from Wilmington. He should be heard by a very large crowd in Wilmington where there are many workingmen.

BIG DAY AT RED SPRINGS

(Special Star Telegram.)

Red Springs, N .C., Oct. 22.—This was a banner day in the political history of Red Springs. Great crowds gathered to hear Craig. At 10 o'clock in the morning the horseback parade was formed in line and met the speaker at the train from whence he was escorted to the auditorium of the Southern Presbyterian College.

This vast auditorium was filed to overflowing with a highly cultured audience. The student body of the college added greatly to the color and inspiration of the scene. Shortly after 11 o'clock Miss Farquhar, violinist, assisted by Miss Law, on the piano brought up the patriotic zeal of the assembly by playing Dixie, and her artistic rendering of "Hijie Katie." Mr. Harllee McCall in a few well chosen words introduced Hon. H. L. Godwin our present Congressman from this district, who introduced Mr. Craig. In his introduction to the speaker Hon. Locke Craig, Mr. Godwin paid a most beautiful tribute to the high character of the man, which tribute met a responsive chord in the hearts of his hearers and when Mr. Godwin came forward in a master stroke of dramatic effort and prophesied that the Hon. Locke Craig would be nominated for Governor in 1912 by popular acclaim, he set his audience wild.

Mr. Craig was at his best and for over an hour and a half his large audience was under the spell of his wonderful eloquence.

His speech covered State and National issues and was a very masterful presentation of the vital questions of the day. His reference to Bryan brought forth great applause. Throughout his speech Mr. Craig was greeted with generous applause, which amounted to an ovation until he sat down. After this speech the crowd adjourned to Hotel Townsend where a great dinner had been prepared for all. Tables that reached the full length of the hotel verandas groaned under their load of good things to eat.

Dinner over the crowd repaired to the town hall where another large and enthusiastic audience had gather to hear the joint debate between the Hon. H. L. Godwin, Democratic candidate for Congress, and Col. A. H. Clocomb, Republican candidate for Congress. Mr. Godwin led off and from the start had the sympathy of his audience. In an argument replete with common sense, with humor and ridicule he so carried his audience with him that his opponent was discomferted before he started. Mr. Godwin showed a conversance with State and National affairs which bespeaks great usefulness to us in his next term.

Col. Slocomb confined his remarks largely to the tariff but did not use the time alloted to him. In both his speech and rejoinder Mr. Godwin spoke up to the last minute of his time and all present realized that there still force in reserve to make him a formidable opponent to any Republican in the State. Great good has been done and the crowd left expressing great satisfaction at the Democratic speeches.

NORTHEAST STORM WARNING.

Ordered Displayed At Southern Ports Last Night.

Following torrential rains prevailing throughout yesterday, storm warnings were ordered displayed at various Southern ports at 10 o'clock last night announcing a northeast storm with an increase in the velocity of the winds, which have been blowing from that direction several days.

The warning received through the local Weather Bureau last night from Washington, D. C., is as follows: "Northeast storm warning 10 P. M. Charleston, Wilmington, Morehead City, Washington, Columbia, Edenton, Elizabeth City, Norfolk, Newport News, Fort Monroe. Increasing and strong northeast winds indicated.

GARRIOTT."

Series of Meetings End.

The series of revival services, which have been in progress during the past ten days at Fifth Street Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. W. E. Hocutt, closed with the Wednesday night service. The meetings have commanded a splendid attendance throughout and the sermons have been a source of much good in the community. A number of Methodist pastors of the city have assisted in the revival and are exceedingly gratified at the interest manifested.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Delightful Trip Down St. John's River and Other Entertainment Members and Visitors Returned From Meeting Yesterday.

Wilmington members of the Association of Surgeons of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, who have been in attendance the past three days upon the fourth annual convention at Jacksonville, Fla., returned to the city yesterday, delighted with the entertainment received in the Florida metropolis.

It will be interesting as well as pleasing news not only to railroad fraternity but to the people of Wilmington generally to know that this city was tentatively chosen as the place of next annual meeting, the formal announcement of the matter having been left with the Executive Committee. There were more than sixty surgeons in attendance upon the meeting while not quite a number of the members were accompanied by members of their families and lady friends. In the absence of the president, Dr. Pride Jones Thomas, of Wilmington, First Vice President J. H. McIntosh, of Columbia, S. C., presided and Dr. E. B. Quillen, assistant chief surgeon, acted as secretary in the absence of Dr. Moran, of Pinner's Point. As already noted a feature of the meeting was a trip down the S. John's river to Sanford, Fla., on the splendid steamer City of Jacksonville, which was placed at the disposal of the visitors and their friends. An elegant luncheon was served and the officers of the boat, Capt. Thos. Creaser, First Officer John R. Christopher, Chief Engineer Thos. Quinton, Purser E. H. Seabrook and Chief Steward H. C. Roundthwaite, vied with one another in giving their guests a pleasant time.

The exercises opened Tuesday with prayer and with the address of welcome by Mayor William H. Seabring, of Jacksonville, to which the response was by Dr. George G. Thomas, chief surgeon, of Wilmington. A feature of the opening session was an address by Col. W. E. Kay, assistant general counsel of the A. C. L., on "The Relations of the Railway to the Legal Department of the Company. Other interesting papers and addresse were also delivered including a review of "Some Interesting Hospital Cases by Dr. Quillen and "A Simple Draining the Gall Tracts" by Dr. E. T. Dickinson, of Wilson. All the papers were listened to with much enthusiasm and pleasure. The election of officers held last thing before adjournment resulted as folows:

President—Dr. J. H. McIntosh, of Columbia, S. C.

First Vice President—Dr. W. H. H. Cobb, of Goldsboro.

Second Vice President—Dr. J. H. Pittman, of Jacksonville.

Secretary-Treasurer—Dr. A. C. Hoyt, of Waycross, Ga.

Executive Committee—Dr. G. G. Thomas, of Wilmington, chairman; Dr. Southgate Leigh, of Norfolk; Dr. J. S. Beard, of Troy, Ala.; Dr. A. M. Brailsford, of Mulins, S. C.; Dr. F. H. Thomas, of Valdosta, Ga., and Dr. J. E. Boyd, of Jacksonville, Fla.

In the Wilmington party which attended the convention were Dr. Thomas, Dr. Quillen, Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Bulluck and Mr. George Wilson, private secretary to Dr. Thomas. Mrs. Bulluck remained in Sanford, Fla., and will not return for some days later.

SALVATION ARMY WORKERS

Adjutant Teed With Family and Assistants Are Here.

The new Salvation Army workers, who take charge of the post here as successors to Adjutant and Mrs. Jas. Yates, are now in charge, and there is an increase in the members, these being besides Adjutant and Mrs. Teed, two assistants in the persons of Private and Mrs. C. P. Green. Adjutant and Mrs. Yates leave this evening for their new home in Lynchburg.

The new workers will be most pleasantly greeted by the Wilmington people. Adjutant Teed has made a splendid record and has been a faithful and consistent worker, while his assistants are capable of rendering valuable aid in carrying on the work. Adjutant and Mrs. Teed have two children, a boy and girl, and the former adds an attractive feature to the services, being a talented cornetist.

Remains Caried to Pender.

The remains of Mr. James E. Barnhill, a soldier, whose death occurred at Fort Caswell Wednesday following an illness from typhoid fever was brought to Wilmington yesterday morning accompanied by a number of his comrades, who are members of the post. Shortly after the arrival of the body here they were placed on the steamer Alice and conveyed to Pender county, the former home of the deceased, where the funeral was held and the remains were interred yesterday afternoon.

HELP THE CAUSE.

As a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee from the Sixth District I am in receipt of a letter from State Chairman Eller requesting me to urge on the Democrats of this section the importance of contributing money to the State campaign fund, and to do so promptly, as the election will be held November 3rd. Chairman Eller informs me that the Sate Committee is sorely in need of funds for the legitimate expenses of the campaign, and I trust the patriotic Democrats of this section will make liberal response to his appeal.

I will take pleasure in forwarding any contributions that may be sent me.

ALL DEMOCRATS FOR BRYAN.

That was a very significant meeting held by the Bryan and Kern club in New York city last Tuesday night. It was remarkable in many respects, but chiefly so because among the speakers were three members of Cleveland's Cabinet, whose speeches were along the line of showing that the Democracy of Tilden and Cleveland is the same as the Bryan Democracy of today and that the men of the former are supporting the latter. It was a mass-meeting under the auspices of the Bryan and Kern businessmen's club. It was not a gathering of New York politicians, but of men of that class in the city which opposed Bryan on both occasions when he was the party's nominee for President. The class of men who attended the meeting and the speakers who addressed the gathering in the interest of Bryan show how sentiment in the party toward him has changed since he was last the candidate of the party. Among the speakers was Judson Harmon, Attorney General under Cleveland who in the course of his speech said:

"All Democrats have come to realize that Democratic principles cannot be advanced but are put in peril when they abandon the party just because some measure is proposed which they do not approve or a man is nominated who was not their choice. Democrats who withheld their support or gave it to the Republican party in 1896 now see that in the end they injured the cause they had at heart.

"These Democrats thus fooled have heard their party and the great and brave leader of its last administration slandered for twelve years as the cause of hard times. They have seen special interests absorbed, through favor, taxes and combinations, to stifle competition and control the markets, the property which came by the industry of all the people. They have seen the law-making power blocked by the forces of privilege and monopoly. They have seen a doughty but blustering executive, elected by enormons contributions from these forces, setting up for the first time in our history the right to say which breakers of the law shall be prosecuted and which go free. They have seen use of the power and prestige of his office to impose his will on his own party in the nomination and try to impose it upon the people in the choice of his successor.

"Our people know now how much money it took to defeat Mr. Bryan, where it came from, and what it was repaid in.

"They would resent the interference of the President in any case. They resent it the more, since his political dealings with Harriman and other disclosures of his 'practical' methods. They resent the fraud by which it was sought to make Mr. Cleveland speak from the grave against the party which honored him."

STOP THE LAWLESSNESS.

The Progressive Farmer of this week has a strong article on the lawlessness which has recently sprung up in some sections of the South known as "night riders." We agree with that paper that this species of lawlessness should be nipped in the bud. If this is not done there is no telling where it will end. Always this species of crime spreads rapidly as can be seen from the press dispatches. From intimidating tobacco growers and owners of cotton gins it has extended to lynching for establishing fishing preserves by the owners of a certain body of land including a lake in certain sections of Tennessee. The lynching of the man Rankin and attempt to murder his partner, Judge Taylor was one of the most outrageous affairs we have ever heard of. This will not be the last occurrence of the kind unless something is done to put a stop to the lawless conduct of the men who call themselves regulators of the conduct of their fellow cotton growers and tobacco planters. This lawless action is spreading all over the South. It is time the State officials were giving some attention to the state of affairs and letting the people know that they cannot take the law into their own hands; that those who undertake to do so will be punished. Men who band together for deliberate violation of the law and for meting out what they call justice to those who do not do as they desire should be brought to judgment and severely punished for their conduct. Had prompt action been taken against the night riders when they first began their work in Kentucky and Tennessee the terrible murder at Reel Foot lake would not have taken place, and unless the officials of the Southern States do something to check night riders in their lawlessness the time will soon come when that crime will be repeated in other States.

The Star returns thanks to Messrs. J. A. Murphy and W. R. Walker, of Currie, for one dollar each to its Democratic National campaign fund. We wish some more of our friends would do the same. By the way, the last report by the Nation committee's chairman on contributions has Governor R. B. Glenn's name in the list for five hundred dollars. He was one of the first men in the State to give one hundred dollars. For his means Governor Glenn has been one of the most liberal contributors in the whole country.

You men whose names are not on the registration books should remember that tomorrow is the last day in which you can register for this election. If you do not register by tomorrow night you will be barred from voting at this year's election and those who cannot read or write will be disfranchised for life. This matter of registration this year is of great importance to the latter class. It rests with them whether they shall ever be able to vote again or not.

When the votes are counted on the night of November 3rd there are going to be some mighty badly fooled Republicans—those who now expect Taft to be elected by the same big majority Rosevelt got four years ago. They will hardly be able to believe it when they hear that New York; Indiana and Ohio have gone Democratic and that the opposition has gained so many congressional districts that it has secured a good working majority in the next House of Representatives.

Taft says he came South to show the people of this section that in his opinion they formed a part of the union, but he had a mighty curious way of telling them his views on the position they occupy. He could not explain his position toward them without insulting them.

The Swine or the Flower?

Oh me! I saw a huge and loathsome sty,
Wherein a drove of wallowing swine were barred,
Whose banquet shocked the nostril and the eye;
Then spoke a voice, "Behold the source of LARD!"

I fled, and saw a field that seemed at first
One glistening mass of roses pure and white,
With dewy buds 'mid dark green foliage nursed;
And as I lingered o'er the lovely sight,
The summer breeze that cooled that Southern scene,
Whispered, "Behold the source of COTTOLENE!"

"Nature's Gift from the Sunny South"

COTTOLENE is a pure and wholesome frying and shortening medium, made from refined cottonseed oil. There is not an ounce of hog fat in it to make food unwholesome, greasy and indigestible.

As evidence of its superiority, COTTOLENE received Grand Prize (highest possible award) at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition; and Gold Medals (also representing highest awards in each case) at the Charleston Exposition, the Paris Exposition, and the Chicago World's Fair. In fact, in every case where COTTOLENE has been exhibited in competition with other cooking fats, it has invariably been granted the highest award.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Secretary of War Wright, whose selection by President Roosevelt to fill a cabinet vacancy, was proclaimed by some of the papers as an honor bestowed upon a Democrat and the South, is now in New York making speeches for Taft. Later, he will address the Taft Democratic Club in Richmond and he may also make speeches in Norfolk and Lynchburg. So, the fact remains that Mr. Roosevelt has never had a Democrat in his cabinet—Charlotte Chronicle.

—Confidence in the election of Mr. Bryan is on the increase and Republicans who were dreaming of being on Easy Street, are arousing from their slumber and are viewing with alarm the storm cloud of defeat that is hanging over the Republican camp. The confidence of Democratic leaders is extending to the rank and file of the party, more and more is growing the feeling that this is certainly a Democratic year and that Bryan will be the next President.—News and Observer.

—The President may yet have to explain who got that $40,000,000 paid for the Panama canal concessions. It seems now to be pretty well established that the rights of the old French company were bought up by an American syndicate for about three million dollars and that the difference between this amount and the price paid by the United States went into the pockets of a group of American financiers, not to call them by any other name. But who were the men and what part did Roosevelt and Secretary of War Taft play in the hidden transaction?—Raleigh Times.

—Mr. Hearst laughs at the idea of Haskell's suing him for libel. Well he may. He has no property which can be attached under a civil proceeding. There has been a judgment outstanding against him for years in New York which the sheriff was unable to satisfy because nothing could be found standing in Hearst's own name. Even his newspapers are carried by a holding company and his stock in that assigned. The only chance Haskell has is to catch him in one of the States where the offence was committed and institute proceedings for criminal libel. Then, if convicted, the court would hold him until the sentence was executed.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

—It is fair to assume that the great powers of Europe are honestly desirous to prevent the outbreak of war between Turkey and Bulgaria, were it for no other reason than that the general conflict to which it would almost inevitably lead woud be waged at a cost well nigh ruinous to all concerned. Unfortunately, at least three of the great powers have ambitions in the Near East calculated to complicate a problem already sufficiently difficult. It is hard to believe, for example, that Germany regards with anything like equanimity the substitution of a new and progressive Turkey, ruled by constitutional methods, for the old, corrupt and despotic Turkey whose life she did so much to prolong. The statement has been made, and there seems no reason to doubt it, that if Turkey can secure for herself ten or twenty years of profound peace, and if the Young Turks remain united and carry through the policy on which they have embarked, Turkey will become a very great power.—Journal of Commerce.

—We have consistently held that with an honest ballot and an honest count in the States of New York, New Jersey and Ohio Bryan would be the next President of the United States. We believe that the national Democratic candidate and leader and his national State managers will see to it that steps are taken to render ineffective the huge corruption fund that is being held in reserve by the Republican managers for use at the polls. If this is not done Taft will be counted in these three States as was McKinley in 1900. As an independent newspaper, we believe that our Presidents, whether Democrats or Republicans, should be elected by an honest vote and an honest count. To hold otherwise would be to confess that our republican form of government was a failure. The straw polls taken in this State indicate that the State with an honest ballot count is normally Democratic by about 100,000 votes, less 60 per cent. of the 400,000 Hisgen votes and 30 per cent. of the 50,000 Debs votes, which will give the State to Bryan by 61,000 votes. Chanler will run ahead of the ticket. That Bryan and Chanler will carry the State of New Jersey is so patent that it requires no demonstration further than is shown in the change of votes in all the polls from Roosevelt in 1904 to Bryan in 1908. It would require some great campaign blunder on the part of the Democrats to change the present trend to Bryan in New York, New Jersey, Ohio and other States.—New York Realty Journal.

BIG SLUMP IN REPUBLICAN VOTE

Such is The Sign Two Weeks Before Election

OBSERVERS ALL AGREE

Roosevelt's Popularity Said to Have Declined Almost Precipitately in Region Where He Was Once the Idol of the Masses.—All Efforts to Be Concentrated Upon New York, Which the Party Must Have to Win.

The Washington Herald of Monday carried a special from Chicago that is a most readable resume of the present situation in the national campaign situation. Every passing day brings brighter prospects and greater assurances of Democratic sucess. The Herald's review, dated at Chicago, Sunday, is as follows:

A slump in the Republican vote of the Middle West, comparable only to that of 1892, will almost certainly be shown by the returns of the election two weeks hence.

The Republican leaders are prepared for it. Unmistakable signs of it confront them on every side. They are hoping that this slump will not be so great as to transfer admittedly doubtful States into the Democratic column. That, today, is the extent of their hopes.

There is danger in Indiana, chaos in Ohio, uncertainties in Wisconsin, wholesale defections in Iowa, disquieting conditions in Kansas, threatening surface indications in Nebraska, a spirit of party indifference and discontent throughout the Northwest, and—an apparent trend toward Bryan everywhere.

Republican hopes as to Ohio and Indiana are beginning to be foreign hopes. The leaders will be more surprised if these States go for Taft than if they go for Bryan, and are not including them in their tables of calculation on the result.

This is not a partisan view of the political situation in the Middle West. It is an impartial, unprejudiced view of it—the conclusion reached as the result of the close and honest observation throughout the territory.

Looked Like Landslide.

Two weeks ago four Washington correspondents who had been traveling over the political battle ground, happened to meet at Milwaukee. After sending their despatches they compared notes and exchanged confidences. All four of them admitted that they had not dared write all they believed as to the situation. Three of them unhesitatingly expressed the opinion that a Bryan landslide was impending. The fourth said he was convinced that the Democrats would make tremendous gains, but he thought these would fall short of a landslide and thus enable Taft to pull through. All four of those correspondents agreed that there was a marked trend towards Bryan; that organized labor was largely for him; that the church vote was for him, largely, that the business vote was less hostile to him than it had ever been before; that the Democratic party was in better organized shape than at any time since 1892; and that the Republican party was in poorer trim for a winning fight than it had been in at least sixteen years.

Roosevelt's Popularity Wanes.

A remarkable phrase of the Western situation is the distinct waning of Theodore Roosevelt's personal popularity. A year ago his name was the one Republican name to conjure with. It is not so now. Ardent supporters of his administrative course criticise him unsparingly. The methods he employed to force the nomination of Taft, deeply resented at the time, and his active participation in the campaign now pending, which is almost universally deprecated, have caused the Roosevelt star to decline almost precipitately.

If Taft should lose his own State, as now seems probable, Republicans will promptly trace the blame to Roosevelt. His assault upon Foraker and incidental allusion to Brownsville intensified the ugly situation there immeasurably. Before that episode harmony had, in part at least, been restored and there was little serious thought that Ohio could possibly go Democratic. Since that episode it has been a case of moving heaven and earth to keep it from going Democratic and the ill effects of the episode were by no means confined to the Buckeye State. They were felt in Indiana, in Illinois, and all over the West, and served to make confusion worse confounded.

Why Taft Came South.

It is in recognition of the dangers confronting Taft and his party, with Ohio, Indiana, and other States slipping away, or showing signs of slipping away, that the Republican leaders are turning their eyes toward Tennessee, North Carolina, and Virginia in the hope—a very vague hope—of securing electoral votes from the South to make up a possible deficit of electoral votes in the West.

Bryan himself expects to carry Iowa.

Woefuly Short of Money.

Money has been lacking, and is still lacking, to make a rousing Republican campaign. It is an open secret that Chairman Hitchcock has been fairly overwhelmed with troubles. He has had to fight to hold his place. He has been put to his wits' end to devise ways and means to meet obligations incurred, when it was reasonably believed that an adequate campaign fund would be forthcoming. Instead of raising $3,000,000, which an estimate made immediately after the Chicago convention called for, it is doubtful whether the amount actually disbursed and in hand, or in sight,

COOK AT BLADENBORO

Strong Speech by Presidential Elector on Wednesday—Argument.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Bladenboro, N. C., Oct. 22.—The people of Bladenboro were treated to a good, sound, vigorous speech today by our presidential elector. Hon. H. L. Cook. The principles and policies of the party were so clearly set forth, with a number of anecdotes at the expense of the Republican party, that it has stirred up the Democrats who were present, and means an increased vote in the township. The Democrats are determined to see that every one of the party faith get to the polls. Work is now the watchword among Democrats.

SNOW STORM IN WEST

Continue With Unabated Fury and Traffic is Demoralized.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 22.—One of the worst snow storms that ever occurred in the West is now at the height of its fury and has demoralized the service of the Canadian Pacific and the Great Northern Railroads. The storms started night before last and continues unabated. Ten inches of snow have already fallen, accompanied by a gale. Snow has filled railway cuts, and in many cases the snow is ten feet deep.

Canadian Pacific snow plows are hard at work, but little progress can be made until the storm ceases. The expresses from Vanvouver and other western points are stalled, while Westbound trains are held up east of the snow region. No trains from the east reached Winnipeg today and it is doubtful when they will get through.

The storm which broke over Alberta Province Tuesday night was wholly unexpected by the railway companies and preparation was not made to receive it. The storm was blinding and the snow soft.

The Canadian Northern train left Edmonton at the usual time and proceeded all right until near Islay, where it ran into a snow bank and stuck. Finally another train was sent to pull it out of the drift.

Seventeen of the women suffragests who were arrested October 13th during the "storming" of the House of Commons in London on charges of disorderly conduct, was yesterday sentenced in the Bow street police court to terms of imprisonment varying from three weeks to three months. The women were offered the alternative of giving bonds for their good behavior, but they elected to go to jail.

The Theatre

Tonight the Academy will present the much expected and strongly heralded musical comedy, "The Runaways," and as Wilmington folks are partial to the jingle of the musical comedy and are well aware of the brilliant success of this particular attraction, while being cognizant of the merits of the present company, they will, no doubt, crowd the theatre this evening.

"The Runaways is one of the best known of all Broadway triumphs. Its long run at the Casino, New York, is a matter of interesting dramatic history, while its big achievements in the other larger cities of the North are also well known. The road tour this season bids fair to equal its glorious past, and the press of North Carolina has added largely to its laurels.

The company that will be seen tonight is heralded by the Broadway favorite, Geo. Ovey, and his support is most capable, including the original and noted Casino Beauty Chorus. The stage settings are pretty and bright and the electrical effects many and beautiful.

The sale of seats for "The Runaways" commenced yesterday morning at Plummer's and in spite of the very inclement weather there was a large reservation.

A Novel, Surprising Act.

One of the novel features at the Crystal Palace this week is being introduced by the well known blackface comedian, Billy Lacelle. He does some lightning composing in the way of music. For instance, he calls for some one in the audience to furnish him with a subject and then in about half a minute he presents a novel, jingling composition that invariably makes a hit with the audience. At first it was thought that Lacelle's act was really a "sell," but it turned out differently and the Palace has been attracting many this week merely to hear the comedian do his rapid song composing stunt. Therefore so popular is the act that Lacelle will continue to use it as part of his new specialty for the remainder of the week.

A Big New York Production.

"The Great Divide," that masterful drama which every city in the United States has proclaimed the "long awaited great American play," will be the attraction at the Academy Monday night. Presented under the direction of Henry Miller and interpreted by a company especially selected and rehearsed by that incompatible producer, this performance undoubtedly will be one of the entertainments of the season. "The Great Divide" was written by William Vaughn Moody, professor of English in the University of Chicago, editor of the famous Cambridge edition of Shakespeare, and the foremost American of today. His epic dramas, "The Masque of Judgment" and "The Fire Bringer", are among the loftiest and most inspired works in literature, and as a lyricist he has been called the American Wadsworth. Seats will go on sale tomorrow morning.

LOCAL DOTS.

—A very handsome silver cup has been added to the prizes for the Elksfest parade, this cup to go to the military company making the best appearance in line.

—The British steamer Candleshoe, Capt. Hall, which went ashore about ten miles down the Cape Fear, while proceeding down the river with a cargo of cotton on Monday night, with the assistance of the Sea King was floated Wednesday night and proceeded on her voyage.

—The Woman's Auxiliary of the Playground's Association will hold an important meeting this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the parlors of The Orton. It is hoped there will be a very large attendance. An Executive Board will be announced and other matters of importance attended to.

—Officer Leon George yesterday afternon served a warrant on Mr. John Patson, proprietor of the Palace Market, charging him with placing obstructions on the streets in front of his place of business at corner of Second and Market streets. The case will be tried in the police court today.

CLEVELAND STREET RAILWAY.

Franchise Defeated—Property Transferred to Original Owners.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Cleveland, Oct. 22.—The franchise under which the Municipal Traction Company is operating the local street railway lines upon a three cent fare basis was defeated by a majority of 879 in the referendum vote here today. The total vote cast was upwards of 75,000.

The defeat of the franchise may mean that the railroad property will revert to its original owners and that the old rate fare strife which lasted seven years will be renewed. The only alternative will be for the city council at once to grant a new franchise which will save the property to the Municipal Traction Company.

BARGE CREW RESCUED.

Revenue Cutter Saves the Lives of a Crew in Carolina Waters.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 22.—Captain Edward Carlson and crew of three men of the lost barge Dessoug, coal laden, which foundered at sea last night while bound from Baltimore to Portsmouth, N. C., in tow were landed here today by the United States revenue cutter Onondaga. The rescue of Captain Carlson and his men was accomplished with great difficulty. A life line could not be gotten from the cutter to the Dessoug owing to high seas and oil had to be poured on the water in order to lower a surf boat.

The Dessoug was worth about $50,000.

fore him. He arose and concluded his remarks in an applause that might well be said to have been a demonstration.

Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, was next introduced and said he was glad beyond expression to be present on an occasion of so much importance to the Christian community, especially to the young men; he was young himself, in spirit if not in years. He referred to his personal regard and esteem for Mr. Hogue and said the occasion should be one of gladness and one of sadness; gladness, that Mr. Hogue had been in the community to bless it and sadness that he was soon to depart. It was pleasing to know, however, that though absent he would be with us in spirit, if not in person. The community though would feel the loss of his presence in person here, the speaker referring to his great assistance in connection with the work of the Associated Charities; the Seamen's Friend Society; with the Salvation Army and in many other spheres of unselfishness.

In this connection, Mr. James Sprunt was introduced and read with effect a splendid tribute to Mr. Hogue from the Seamen's Friend Society of which he is the vice president and one of the most active supporters. The resolutions recount the valuable services of Mr. Hogue in conection with the work and extend to him an expression of good will and a wish to him of God's speed in his new field of usefullness.

Mr. William H. Sprunt responded briefly, making a hit with the excuse that being the junior member of the firm, he had learned that when the senior member was present to be seen and not heard.

Dr. Wells, of the First Presbyterian Church, was next introduced and said that it was given to few to hear their own epitaphs; those present had heard many things, much in taffy and epitaphy in regard to Mr. Hogue and the remarkable thing about them all was that they were true. He paid a remarkably beautiful tribute to Mr. Hogue by way of an illustration that brought forth long applause from his hearers.

Cameron F. McRae, Esq., a member of the Brotherhood, told of his personal estimate of Mr. Hogue and the great regret that he personally in common with the community, felt at his departure, this regret being tempered only by the fact that Mr. Hogue was going to his adopted home where he hoped to meet him often.

Rev. W. E. Cox, rector of St. John's parish, was glad to give voice to his expression of regret at the loss the community is about to sustain. He had known Mr. Hogue long and intimately; It had been his pleasure to be with him in the seminary and had appreciated his efforts in Wilmington.

Mr. J. A. Taylor, president of the Chamber of Commerce, spoke well and interestingly on the effect of the life and work of Mr. Hogue in the community and upon the people. As a member of his vestry and as a personal friend he paid substantial tribute to the retiring rector.

Secretary Edwin Kettle spoke with special reference to the work of Mr. Hogue in conection with the Y. M. C. A., and of his personal high esteem of the man.

Col. Walker Taylor told of his impression of Mr. Hogue and the value of the man to the community irrespective or creed and of the intensely sympathetic side of his nature. He was a friend whom many in this city would miss upon his departure.

Mr. George Rountree spoke feelingly of the personal loss he would sustain in the removal of Mr. Hogue and testified to his breadth, his utter lack of narrowness or sectarianism, his sympathy and his profound consecration. He was a force in the community for the Christian life and Wilmington could ill afford to lose him, except to a sphere of greater usefulness.

One of the most tender tributes paid during the evening was by Adjutant James Yates, who leaves today as officer in charge of the local post of the Salvation Army. It was seen that Adjutant Yates could hardly repress a tear as he spoke of the friendship of Mr. Hogue and the value of the rector in the work which the Salvation Army has tried to do in Wilmington. Mr. Yates was given an ovation second only to that accorded the beloved rector in whose honor the affair was arranged.

Herbert McClammy, Esq., of the Wilmington bar, testified to his personal knowledge of acts of charity and good deeds performed by Mr. Hogue out of the fullness of a heart that was as tender and as true as that a woman. His address was beautiful, eloquent and appropriate to the occasion.

Mr. D. H. Howes spoke especially of the influence of Mr. Hogue upon the young men of other denominations, testifying to the great work that has been accomplished in this way in Wilmington and expressing infinite regret at the severance of the relation here

Captain William F. Robertson, junior warden of the vestry, spoke interestingly and feelingly of the influence for good that the retiring rector had exerted and of the religious as well as material prosperity that had resulted in Wilmington during the past six years. He said that while one community lost Mr. Hogue, all North Carolina gained him and there was comfort in that thought mingled with the sorrow that there is in his going.

Rev. Thos. P. Noe spoke intimately of his association with Mr. Hogue not only in Wilmington but during his college days, testifying to a very high estimate of the man and speaking of co-operation and help that had been given him here by those to whom he ministered.

Mayor Springer, formally and officially, paid splendid tribute to Mr. Hogue in the following well prepared testimonial to his worth:

"It affords me great pleasure to bear witness to the splendid services of my highly esteemed friend in our city during the past several years, not only as citizen, cognizant of the good work he has done, but officially, in many many ways. We wish him to bear away with him the knowledge that, one and all we shall miss him. Like most good things in life, so long as they are easily within reach, we accept them as a matter of course. It is only when we are about to lose them that we awaken to their full significance in our own lives. For years, now, we have been accustomed to Mr. Hogue's presence in our community, and among our people. Now, when circumstances have arisen which all at once cut us off from these privileges, we know that we have something to say. We shall miss him as a friend,—not one of us but could tell, were it not for his own modesty, of many very welcome kindnesses at his hands. There have been many such acts, many more of them than he could possibly recall, but none of them have been lost.

"While it is not becoming that either he or we should list and appraise such deeds as are now in my hands, it is well for all of us to realize that in the diivne economy of the universe every gentle word and friendly deed enters both into the mind of him who gives and of him who receives, so we have come to love him as a friend, and are glad to look him in the eyes and tell him so. Of the place occupied by Mr. Hogue in this community as a minister of the gospel, of his devotion to those great fundamental principles which always and everywhere make for righteousness, I cannot in these few moments begin to speak.

"His work has written his life in characters far more legible, than any which I have the power to reproduce, not only to us, but to all who know him. You stand as the type of the manly, human, Christian minister, devoted to the cause of the Master, but working as He worked,—earnestly among and with the great common people, realizing that surely salvation must begin right here amid the dust and turmoil of our busy, every day, commonplace lives.

"I wish you, Mr. Hogue, God-speed in your new field of labor."

Mr. W. B. Cooper was introduced to speak for the banking and business interests which he did in splendid manner, referring to the loss of the commercial community in Mr. Hogue's departure.

Finally and just before all stood and sang "Blest Be The Tie That Binds" and Rev. Dr. McClure pronounced the benediction, Mr. Hogue made beautiful and most eloquent response to all the kind expressions of the evening. It was a response of supreme appreciation and a beautiful and most eloquent formal farewell to the Brotherhood. Any synopsis would fall far short of conveying the idea of the fine address which he made at this juncture of an evening of so much gladness and so much sadness. It fittingly concluded an evening of enjoyment not unmixed with regret but delightfully appropriate and expressive of the sentiment of the representative people of the community upon the loss which they are suffering.

The banquet was arranged by a committee composed of Messrs. J. B. Fenley, W. N. Harriss and Charles Myers and the splendid arrangements were carried out to the pleasure of each and everyone present. It was 1:30 o'clock this morning when the banquet came to a close.

MR. TAFT IN INDIANA

The Day Spent Chiefly in Speaking to Farmers and Working Men—He Talks About Bad Conditions if Bryan is Elected.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Milan, Ind., Oct. 22.—Indiana is to be the battleground in which William H. Taft will push his campaign for the remainedr of the week. He has adopted an itinerary which calls for fifty speeches in this State. He began the day before 8 o'clock this morning at Lawrenceburg, where he had this to say of Mr. Bryan:

"Mr. Bryan is a bit sensitive because Republicans are phophesying, (not only Republicans—Democrats too—in a business way) that if he is elected it will retard business and that if the Republican ticket is elected it will mean prosperity. He says this is offering bribery to workmen. It is not offering bribery. It is stating a fact, and it is a fact that working men to know as well as business men. Mr. Bryan's election will be a menace to prosperity. We may not if he is elected expect that business will be resumed with that flow and current of prosperity that we have had for the last eleven years."

North Vernon, Ind., Oct. 22.—At Aurora Mr. Taft repeated his answer to Mr. Bryan's charge that it is bribery on the part of the Republican orators to tell working men that if Bryan is elected times will not be so good. "So long as I have lungs and a throat," declared Mr. Taft, "I propose to make that argument. It is a legitimate argument because it is a fact, and the laboring men have a right to have the truth told them."

At Osgood to an audience mostly of farmers Mr. Taft said in part:

"If any farmer can point out any reason why the present administration of Theodore Roosevelt for seven years, and the previous administration of William McKinley for five years ought to be changed so far as the farming interests are concerned, I would like to have him do it."

That future business confidence and consequent prosperity depended upon Republican success at the polls, Mr. Taft declared to be indicated by the manner in which business men were making their orders for goods dependent on Republican success.

BLOCKING ELECTION FRAUDS

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 22.—Charges were made today by William J. Conners, chairman of the Democratic State committee that the Republican organizations in up-State counties had padded the registration rolls with from 5,000 to 20,000 names, and, to prevent the casting of a fraudulent vote, the executive committee has appointed a State law committee with former Judge Alton B. Parker as chairman. Mr. Conners said that the law committee would be composed of about 500 attorneys, and that on election day these attorneys would be assisted by special deputies in each election district to see that ballots were honestly cast and counted. Mr. Conners said:

"There will be not voting of dead men by the Republicans in this election, and the State committee will see that our opponents are not permitted to run men over from Pennsylvania and Canada to vote them in this State. Already we have discovered hundreds of cases of fraudulent registration up-State and have succeeded in having the names stricken from the lists.

"We want a square deal. We are not going to buy the election, and we have not got the money to buy it with anyway. We don't propose to have the Republicans rob us as they have done in the past.

National Chairman Mack declared tonight that the change in Mr. Taft's plans by which he will speak in thirty-four cities and towns in this State, instead of speaking in only a few of the larger cities as previously announced, indicated that the Republican managers felt the necessity of carrying this State, which was virtually acknowledged that they felt that they were losing Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin and Kansas. Mr. Mack said that if the Republicans were certain of the Middle Western States they would not need New York.

PERNICIOUS POLITICAL ACTIVITY

Causes Several Office Holders to Come to Grief.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Oct. 22.—More official heads have fallen as the result of charges of pernicious activity in the political campaign. The Civil Service Commission today announced that after thorough investigation J. H. Fordham a deputy collector of internal revenue at Orangeburg, S. C., has been reprimanded and suspended without pay for fifteen days for active participation in the Republican State Convention at Columbia. Robert A. Stewart, a temporary deputy collector of Clarendon county, S. C., has been reprimanded. R. O. Pierce, an employee of the Mare Island navy yard, who announced his candidacy for superviser in the First District, has been discharged from the service. Clyde Knock, a letter carrier at Independence, Kas., who became candidate for the district court clerkship resigned from the postal service to avoid dismissal.

She Likes Good Things.

Mrs. Chas. E. Smith of West Franklin Maine, says: "I like good things and have adopted Dr. King's New Life Pills as our family laxative medicine, because they are good and do their work without making a fuss about it." These painless purifiers sold at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 25c.

WARM WIRELETS.

Senator Benj. R. Tillman arrived at his home in Trenton, S. C., yesterday. The day was celebrated by a family re-union, all of the Tillman family from various parts of the State being present.

Zenis Warnell, a well known naval stores operator and a member of the firm of Z. Warnell & Brother, was assassinated yesterday at Blitchton, Ga., by Brunswick McRae, a negro, who escaped. The affair followed a dispute over financial matters.

Dutchess Alexandria Victoria, of Schleswig-Hulstein, daughter of Prince Frederick, Duke of Schleswig-Holstein, was married in the chapel of the Imperial Palace in Berlin at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon to Prince August William of Prussia, fourth son of Emperor William.

It will be definitely known today whether or not the Latonia race track will continue its 24 days meeting. The Governor will meet the racing commission and the Latonia officials at Frankfort this morning and he is the only man that can stop the meeting now.

John Temple Graves, vice presidential candidate of the Independence party addressed several hundred of the voters of Gloverville, N. Y., early last night. Colonel Graves devoted his attention to a discussion of the industrial conditions of the country and pointed out the relief which the platform of the Independence party would afford the working men.

The six-masted schooner Edward D. J. Lawrence, Captain Kreger, from Boston to Norfolk, light, and the three-masted schooner Isaac T. Campbell, Captain Waldron, from New York to Mobile were in collision in Lynn Haven Roads during the thick weather yesterday. The Campbell which came in for harbor was at anchor when the larger vessel crashed into her. Neither vessel is seriously damaged.

The condition of John W. Kern, Jr., the 8 year old son the Democratic Vice Presidential candidate, who is suffering from infantile paralysis, complicated by acute indigestion, showed no improvement last night. His father, who was called home from his speaking campaign in New York and Ohio reached Indianapolis early in the morning and scarcely left the bedside during the day.

Charles and Millard Hale, aged 6 and 9 years, respectively, were horribly wounded by the explosion of a railroad torpedo at their home in Brimfield, Ky., in Boyle county, yesterday. The children were playing along the railroad tracks, found the torpedo and took it home to use as a target to throw at. The first missle thrown hit the torpedo squarel, causing it to explode. The children are not expected to live.

J. E. Goldberg ,member of a large dry goods firm, of Detroit, was roughly handled yesterday by a mob of 1,500 people on Griswold street, opposite the City Hall, after a dispute with a chauffeur whom he had discharged. He had discharged him, but the chauffeur refused to leave the machine until he was paid more wages than his employer thought was due. A large crowd had gathered and the chauffeur appealed to them. Police were sent for but despite the officer's presence the crowd attacked Mr. Goldberg.

Delegations from many neighboring towns local marching clubs, and numerous brass bands joined at Elmira, N. Y., last night in a parade in honor of Congressman James S. Sherman, who spoke at the lyceum theatre before a large audience. "With every rising sun," declared the speaker, "Brother Bryan has a new issue, which he forgets with each setting sun." He then contrasted Republican deeds with Democratic promises. Mr. Sherman closed his address with a vigorous championship of Governor Hughes, administration.

The rain that has been general over the Southwest for three days, following a forty-eight day drouth, has broken all October records in amount of precipitation. At Lawrence, Kansas, the rainfall Wednesday was 5.60 inches, broke all the October rainfall records for 22 years. In Kansas City during the 24 hours ending at 7 o'clock yesterday morning the precipitation was 4.38 inches, which is a new record for 24 hours. All the streams in Kansas and Oklahoma are overflowing the bottoms and there has been some loss of corn and cotton and many bridges have been washed away.

BABY'S ITCH EASILY CURED

Infantile Eczema Quickly Relieved by External Use of Oil of Wintergreen Compound.

Infantile eczema, which has baffled the skil of the best physicians for so many years at last seems to be curable—and curable with great ease.

Results of the last two years indicate conclusively that baby's itch, infantile eczema and other skin diseases of children can be very simply cured by the application of a compound composed of oil of wintergreen, thymol and glycerine, as in D. D. D. Prescription.

The Rev. Lewis Steeley, of Weatherly, Pa., writes:

"Our baby boy's little face was so dreadfully covered with eczema that blood and water ran from the sores nearly all the time. After using 3 1-2 bottles of D. D. D. Prescription we are so happy to tell you he is entirely cured and the disease has never broken out again. If this letter is in any way a help to other sufferers, you may publish it."

If you have a child which is suffering with this terrible itch, we are sure you will not neglect one hour to give your baby the right kind of relief. We have seen too often how quickly the remedy mentioned above takes the itch away at once and how all the cures seem to be permanent; we have seen this too often to hesitate at all in recommending the remedy for your children. Robert R. Bellamy, druggist.

THE LECTURE IS AGAIN POSTPONED

Steady Down Pour Last Night Made Out Door Entertainment Impossible.

WILL BE CONTINUED

Public Interest Not Checked by Rain Many Write and Others Call to See Col. Dillingham's Representative at His Hotel.

The series of entertainments and lectures now being given in Wilmington by Col. Frank A. Dillingham was again interrupted last night by the inclemency of the weather, but will be resumed as soon as weather conditions will permit an out door performance of this character.

The desire of the local public to become acquainted with the Plant Juice remedies has now reached a stage where it cannot be checked by rain. Letters in great numbers are sent to Col. Dillingham every day by persons who seek knowledge of the wonderful powers of Plant Juice and there have also been a number of citizens who called at the apartments of Mr. Mills, Col. Dillingham's associate and local representative to learn if Plant Juice would afford relief in some particular case of disease or suffering. All who inquire regarding Plant Juice, either in person or by letter, are shown every consideration and their questions are frankly answered. Col. Dillingham's representative tells them exactly what Plant Juice will do, and what it will not do, and furnishes an abundance of proof to substantiate every claim made for this great medicine. They are told that they can secure the remedies at R. R. Bellamy's, the J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., and other druggists of Wilmington, where it will be sold to them at the regular prices; which are $1 for Plant Juice, and 25 cents for Plant Juice Liniment. Every bottle sold in this city goes out with the guarantee that it will do exactly what is claimed for it, this being a feature of Col. Dillingham's business methods that has been largely responsible for the great degree of public confidence enjoyed by Plant Juice. Every man who buys a bottle of this medicine knows that he can return the unused portion of the medicine at the end of one week and his money will be returned to him; all that he is asked to do is to give it an honest trial of one week and if, at the end of that time, Plant Juice has not accomplished that which is claimed for it, the purchaser can have his money refunded by returning the medicine remaining in the bottle and the carton in which it was sold.

At Norfolk, Va., yesterday Benjamin F. Gilbert, aged 28 years, was found guilty of murder in the first degree for killing his sweetheart, Miss Amanda Morse, whom he shot down on Campostella Bridge July 23rd last when she refused his suit for the attentions of another young man with her at the time.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Our Home: Rev. G. P. Stevens will leave for China Friday, October 30th, as a missionary of the Presbyterian church. There will be a farewell service at the Presbyterian church here next Sunday night. Rev. George H. Atkinson, of Monroe, will conduct the service.

—Winston Journal: After an illness of several weeks, Rev. Moses Baldwin, one of the oldest ministers in the State, died at the Twin-City hospital yesterday afternoon at 5:15. Mr. Baldwin suffered a stroke of paralysis several months ago and he was brought to the hospital from his home at Huntsville, Yadkin county.

—Greensboro Telegram: Mr. Neele Streeter, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Streeter, of this city, was instantly killed yesterday morning in Gaffney, by coming in contact with a live wire. A telegram to this effect was received by friends here and many were pained to learn of Mr. Streeter's death.

—The Ansonian: The deep well on Mr. W. G. Covington's place near town is now 400 feet deep and the water supply is not certain yet. Mr. Faulkner, who has charge of the boring, says that he was aware of the fact that whiskey had been voted out of Wadesboro, but he knew nothing of the water having been interfered with before he began work.

—Raleigh, Oct. 21.—The Governor today granted a reprieve to Henry Harvey, a negro sentenced to hang tomorrow in Richmond county for murder. The date is changed to November 19. The reprieve is granted at the request of counsel for the negro, who will ask for a life sentence on the ground that the negro is of very low mental order, in fact, almost an idiot.

—Newbern Sun: Mr. Jessie R. Pope, who was nominated for county treasurer, on the Republican ticket, declined to make the run. So the executive committee has appointed Capt. A. T. Thompson, as the candidate to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Pope. The committee also appointed Mr. Robert Hancock, a candidate on the ticket for county commissioner in the place of Mr. Jesse S. Knight, who declined the nomination.

—Wadesboro Ansonian: The play center of the Singleton Settlement was opened Saturday night when a large number attended the exercises. The boys and girls had met on the Thursday night previous and made candy to serve to those who attended. Arrangements have been made by Mrs. Burgess for short talks during the winter months at the school building by professional and business men of the town on topics of interest to the children.

—Monroe Enquirer: Mrs. Missouri Williams, who lived near Plains, S. C., was shot and killed last Tuesday by her little grandson, Vernon Williams, aged about 12 years. The little boy went out to shoot an owl and the grandmother went to a window to see him shoot it. The boy missed the owl and followed the bird some distance into the woods and went into the house to tell his grandmother the result of his hunt, and to his horror found the old lady lying by the window dead. The little fellow had no idea of the result of his shot until he returned to the house.

—Fall River News: That "nature faker" affair of Mr. Rooesvelt's has lost one vote for the Republican party, at any rate. One of the Rev. Dr. Long's admirers is Isaac W. Brown, of Rochester, Ind. He made an address on "Birds, Bees and Bryan," the other night, giving most of his time to Bryan. He used to be a Republican, and voted for Roosevelt, but since the Chief Executive crossed swords with Mr. Long over the story of the snipe putting his broken leg in splinters he has gone over to the hopeless minority.

—Greenville, S. C., Oct. 21.—Both parties to the terrible tragedy that occurred here Sunday night are dead. Mr. A. B. Kittrell died here at 5 o'clock this morning and Mr. C. F. White died in the hospital at Washington this afternoon. Thus the curtain falls over a tragedy resulting from whiskey that was an awful shock to the community and has filled with sadness many hearts. Mr. Kittrell leaves eight children. Mr. White was unmarried but was a member of a prominent family here and a brother of county Treasurer S. F. White.

—Salisbury Post: The campaign has been productive of two libel suits of more than State interest. The suit of State Chairman Adams, of the Republican committee against former Senator Marion Butler is still fresh in the minds of the public and now comes along former Supreme Court Justice W. A. Montgomery asking for $50,000 from Thomas Dixon, author and playwright, for alleged libel. The suit instituted by Governor Haskell against W. R. Hearst does not overshadow the litigation between the North Carolina parties, since they are all men of very much more than local note.

—Fayetteville Observer: President McNeill, of the Fayetteville Street Railway and Power Company made good his promise to have electric cars running in Fayetteville by Tuesday of Fair Week. The first car was placed on the rails yesterday afternoon and today a large, well-equipped and comfortable car is being propelled by electricity between the A. C. L. depot and Fair Grounds. It runs as well as any street car in the large cities and for a new line, it works marvelously well. This is an epoch in the city's history, and should add immensely to the rapid progress Fayetteville is now making. "Fayetteville is bound to 'Shine'," was written nearly a century ago, and today she is "shining." President McNeill and his associates of the Street Railway Company, are to be congratulated.

at this time exceeds one-tenth of that amount. In other words, within a fortnight of the election the Republicans have had $300,000, or hereabouts, to conduct their campaign. Contrasted with the limitless resources at Hanna's command in 1896 and 1900, and the well-filled coffers which Cortelyou secured in 1904, the Republicans are handicapped in the matter of money much as the Democrats have been handicapped since Bryan came upon the public stage.

At the Party Headquarters.

The Democratic headquarters, both here and in New York, are conducted much less expensively, if not much more efficiently, than are the Republican headquarters. There is no Democratic pay-roll worth mentioning. The men who are managing this campaign for Bryan are managing it for love of him and love of Democracy. They are putting into it an enthusiasm and a heart interest constantly in evidence. Moreover, a confident and an aggressive spirit dominates their work. At Republican headquarters, on the contrary, where salaried men are employed, the lack of resources, the clamor for money not to be had, the dissensions daily brought to light, the disgruntlement of old-time party workers—all these and other things have served to dampen the ardor of Hitchcock's lieutenants, if not Hitchcock himself, and estop in a measure the carrying out of the well-defined plans originally laid out.

Concentrating Effort in New York.

New York will be in the heat of the fray from this time on. Western Republicans are of one mind as to the absolute importance of holding the Empire State. Ohio and Indiana may be lost, and yet Taft can win if New York supports him. A month ago Western Republicans, scoffing at the idea of danger in Ohio, did not hesitate to say that if Ohio went Democratic the country would go Democratic beyond peradventure. They are not talking that way now. They are figuring on electing Taft without his own State. While they believe that New York is safely Republican by at least 100,000 majority, they do not propose to take any chances.

Very Hard to Figure Out.

Have the conditions changed for the better for the Republicans since Taft's tour of the West? Newspaper correspondents say no. They are of the opinion that the Bryan drift is certainly as strong today as at any time, if not stronger. Taking the enormous Republican majorities of the last few years as a basis of calculation, and allowing for a large shrinkage in almost every quarter, it is still possible for Taft to be elected. In fact, it cannot logically be figured out, taking the Roosevelt vote of 1904, how the Republicans are going to lose enough votes to endanger Taft's election. Nevertheless, with such States as Ohio and Indiana trembling in the balance, and a wave of Bryanism extending over the entire Northwestern country, the Democratic hopes of a landslide are increasing day by day and Republican apprehension taking more serious form as the election approaches.

Of the far West and the Pacific Coast, definite information is lacking at the headquarters of both parties. It is assumed that California, Oregan, Washington, Idaho, and other States far away are going Republican. But nobody knows for certain. Attention has been concentrated upon the middle West and the Mississippi Valley and now is concentrated upon New York.

—Fayetteville, Oct. 21.—The Cumberland Agricultural Fair opened today with large crowds in attendance. The opening ceremonies were begun by a brilliant parade of gaily decorated floats and carriages to the fair ground. Six persons were seriously injured and several others slightly hurt by the collapse of a large float containing over one hundred school children and two teachers in the opening parade of the Cumberland Fair today. The float represented the East-over public school and was competing for a prize offered by the Fair Association for the float containing the greatest number of children. Those badly injured were: Mrs. Annie J. McGovock, Berline Beard, Eva Crumpler, Katie Culbreth, Aston Cain and Henry Murphy. At this hour the condition of all the injured is encouraging, with the exception of the little Culbreth girl, who is thought to be more seriously injured than at first supposed.

VINOL CURES CHRONIC COUGHS, COLDS AND BRONCHITIS

After Other Remedies Fail

"I have been troubled with a chronic cold and bronchitis for a long time and have tried many remedies without finding relief. Through the kind suggestion of a friend I tried Vinol, and after taking four bottles, am entirely cured." A. H. Wilde, 733-8th Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

S. McDonald, 147 W. Congress St. Paul, Minn., writes: "I contracted a severe cold last winter and thought I would never get rid of it. I tried Vinol as a last resort, and it has completely cured me."

Vinol combines two world-famed tonics, the healing, medicinal properties of cod liver oil and tonic iron, deliciously palatable and agreeable to the weakest stomach. For this reason, Vinol is unexcelled as a strength-builder for old people, delicate children, weak and run-down persons, after sickness and for Chronic Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis.

THE GREAT ANDES

It is said and doubtless true that The Great Andes, the well-known Kentuckian, is gaining fame and fortune faster than any individual today in the same line of business. Every city that he visits, the people turn out by the thousands to see him and to hear his new famous lecture on good health. Be it said to his credit, if any one within the sound of his wonderful voice is suffering from any form of Rheumatics, Catarrh, Indigestion, Stomach, Liver, Kidney or Bladder Disease, when they leave, after hearing his talks on these diseases, they invariably go to his headquarters, (which is usually at the leading drug store) and make a purchase of his Great Prescription.

Here is a letter from one who tells of his cure.

MR. ANDES:

It is with much pleasure I give you this statement, as I have been a sufferer from Catarrh of the Head, for the past fifteen years. It was becoming so offensive I was ashamed to be near any one. Scabs would form in my mouth, had noises in my head, and suffered very much from neuralgia.

I heard your lecture on Catarrh, and you told me better how I suffered than I could tell it myself. Purchased and used three bottles of your Andes' Great Prescription, and feel that I am entirely cured.

TEACHER—Yes, Master Hans, you may tell us why the EDUCATOR is the best shoe for boys and girls.

HAPPY HANS—Because it gives lots of room for all five toes to grow, and never hurts the feet. My pa says that boy's EDUCATORS wear longer than other kinds. He says he is going to wear EDUCATORS after this.

TEACHER—You are perfectly correct, Hans. EDUCATORS are Nature's own shape, and "let the feet grow as they should." I wear EDUCATORS, too. You ought to tell Sorry Sam's mother about your shoes. They are made by Rice & Hutchins.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 22.—The cotton market was decidedly more active today and prices ruled higher, the closing being very steady at a net advance of 7 @ 13 points, while total sales were reported of 300,000 bales.

The market opened steady at an advance of 1 @ 6 points on the response to higher cables and less favorable weather in the western belt. After showing a net advance of 4 @8 points on buying by spot interests of near months and a scattering demand which had accummulated over night, the market reacted 3 or 4 points as a result of realizing but later firmed up again on the forecast for continued cold, wet weather in the western belt and reports of a more active spot demand. Prices sold into new high ground for the movement or 9 @ 14 points higher during the afternoon and closed within 1 @ 4 points of the best. Local spot brokers reported that New England mills were paying an advance of 1-4c over their offers of yesterday but it did not appear that the interior was fully following the advance in futures, although the markets officially reported were unchanged to 3-16 higher. It is reported that cold, wet weather is doing damage to crops in Northern Texas and Oklahoma.

Receipts at the ports today were 68,666 bales, against 44,213 last week and 41,852 last year; for the week 400,000 bales, against 371,000 bales week, and 324,620 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 7,841 bales against 9,143 last year and at Houston 15,227 bales against 10,596 last year.

New York, Oct. 22.—Spot closed quiet 10 points advance, middling uplands 9.40; middling gulf 9.65; sales 200 bales.

Futures opened and closed steady.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 22.—A process of digestion of speculative profits was in progress in today's stock market and its effect on prices was quite clearly manifest as the day went on. Transactions during the first hour were on a very large scale and the market had all the appearance of great strength and animation at that time. Wire houses and commission houses reported a considerable increase in volume of orders from outside sources. The reaction which followed lacked explanation in the news of the day quite as much as the rise of yesterday. Dealings continued much congested in a few stocks. Realizing was neglected and when the professional element of the room trade attempted to follow the movement by short sales the market fell into dullness. The profit taking was not pushed urgently at the expense of values. Incidents in the news were unimportant and seemed to have little effect on the market. An item of the day's news that had a cheering influence was the purchase of some large orders of printcloth for future delivery from the New England mills. Rains in the west were of good effect.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales per value were $3,758,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stock today were 732,000 shares.

—Fayetteville Observer: The United States mail wagon, driven by Lucian Bryant, colored, was smashed to splinters on the Hay street crossing at the Raleigh & Southport depot at noon today, by the rear end car of the Bennettesville train, which was backing into a siding. The horse just cleared the crossing when the train struck the wagon and how Bryant escaped he does not know himself. He was picked up from almost under the car and to the surprise of everyone, was found to be unhurt. It was some time before he could believe this fact himself. After the accident the horse continued to plunge, and in doing so knocked three negro men over, but they were not hurt.

Should a Man Economize On His Clothes?

If we had high-priced clothing to sell, we could probably convince you that you couldn't afford to wear cheap clothing.

No man can afford to wear clothes that discount him in the eyes of everybody he meets. But you can't walk a block in this city with out passing many men who are wearing clothing that sets badly on them; is curled at the edges, and drawn out of shape—because they paid a few dollars less for it than they would have need to pay for perfect-fitting clothes.

And the perfect-fitting clothing would not only make them look better and feel better every minute they had it on, BUT WOULD WEAR HALF AS LONG AGAIN, at least, and so be cheaper in the end than the clothes that never gave any satisfaction, first or last.

But, while SOLKY CLOTHING is the BEST that is known, ready-made, in style, workmanship and finish, it costs just about the same as the less worthy kinds.

AMERICAN FLEET IN TOKIO HARBOR

POPULAR DEMONSTRATION

Shows the Friendly Feeling of the People Toward the Americans—A Tremendous Torch-Light Procession—A Banquet.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Tokio, Oct. 22.—The capital of Japan witnessed tonight the most extraordinary evidence of the spirit of the new Japan.

After having an audience of the officers of the American battleship fleet on Tuesday, the Emperor issued an order directing the people to increase in every way possible the enjoyment and pleasure of the American visitors, who came, he said, as historic friends of the Japanese nation. The response to this imperial mandate was seen and heard tonight.

Originally a torchlight procession of 15,000 people was planned as part of today's programme, but this feature went far beyond expectations and developed into a great pouplar demonstation. Japan's war celebrations after peace with Russia, "London's Mafeking Night," and even New York's election night revel would seem almost insignificant compared with Tokio's celebration tonight.

Representatives of various guilds, universities, school of every class of boys and other organizations took part, each individual carrying a lighted lantern held high on a long pole with American and Japanese flags inter-twined. Admiral Sperry and the other chief officers of the American fleet viewed the procession from a special grand stand, standing with bared heads above the sea of waving danterns the defeaning roar of cheers, and the clash of the music from scores of bands which played the American National hymn continuously.

At the dinner given by Minister of Foreign Affairs Komura the minister in proposing the health of Rear Admiral Sperry said he was bidding him a reluctant good bye. He asked the admiral to take back to the people of the United States the message of good will and kindly feeling seen on every face and heard in every voice of tens of thousands, which was a sure reflection of the sentiments of the loyal subjects of the Emperor. Japan never forgot, said Minister Komura, that in her hour of stress she had not looked in vain to the great republic for sympathy while in her forward struggle she had example and encouragement from the American people.

Rear Admiral Sperry in replying said that the character of the welcome given the fleet by Japan could not be mistaken and it must be perpetuated for generations, for no better guage of lasting friendship could be given than the banzais of the tens of thousands of children massed in the streets. "No two countries," said the Admiral, "Never clasped hands across the sea closer than on this occasion. Both countries may rest content that intelligent friendly sympathy has bound the ancient friendly ties closer than ever before."

COMMISSIONERS MEETING ENDS

South Was Dumping Gronds for Impure Food Says Georgian.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 22.—At the final session of the Southern States Commissioners of Agriculture and other agricultural workers today, Dr. W. P. Ellenberger, of the United States bureau of animal industry, read a paper on the progress made in tick eradication in the South. He said that since the Government took charge of the work in 1906 approximately $60,000 square miles had been released from "quarantine."

Dr. R. E. Stallings, of Georgia, in a paper on the food and stock feed laws in the South, said that before enactment of the pure food laws the South was literally the dumping ground for adulterated food and drugs, but that of late the situation has greatly improved.

PHYSICIAN A SUICIDE.

Drank Poison Rather Than Face Serious Charge.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 22.—Rather than face trial for manslaughter, growing out of a case of alleged criminal practice, Dr. Irving J. Cook, a young doctor of this city, drank a dose of a powerful poison and shot himself at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel today. His body was found by hotel attendants. The man left a sealed letter addressed to his wife but accompanying it was a terse note in which he asked her "Not to take this affair hard."

Dr. Cook was arrested last Tuesday night and the following day he was released in $10,000 bail.

He was to have been prosecuted for the death of a young woman at Summit, N. J., last Summer.

A BUSY DAY FOR BRYAN

Begins His Tour of West Virginia Before Sun-Rise and Spends the Whole Day in Speaking to the Democrats of that State.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Ravenswood, W. Va., Oct. 22.—William J. Bryan was up at sunrise and a short time afterward was speaking to a good sized audience, mostly farmers. He proceeded to puncture the Republican contention that the farmers owed their prosperity to the Republican party. "I can prove to you," he said, "that the Republican party has nothing to do with the fertility of soil or sunshine or rain, for if it did then there would be a trust on sunshine and a meter on the sun. The fact that these things are not monopolies is conclusive proof that the Republican leaders exercise no control over them. He denied that the Republican party was responsible for the present prices of agricultural products and said the Republican leaders had spent their time legislating in the interest of the financiers of Wall street, instead of listening to the plea of the farmers for security in their deposits. He maintained that Mr. Taft's position in respect to guaranteeing deposits was that the unsecurity of the depositor is the security of the banking system.

Mason City, W. Va., Oct. 22.—Mr. Bryan got a warm welcome here today. He gave a hurried explanation of the differences in the platforms of the two parties and asserted that the Republican party driven to extremes was now making excuses.

"There was not," he said, "a single policy of the Republicans that promised good for those who toil, while the Democratic party could draw to its ranks those of all classes and all ages."

On the subject of panics he charged that the Republicans need not talk about their panic. "If," he said, "Mr. Taft is so solicitous about your future why has not he been as concerned in the past? If he is so anxious to protect you from business depression in the future, then why did he not protect you from the business depression that came upon you last Fall like a thief in the night?"

The Republicans, he said, have no plan for the restoration of prosperity.

St. Albans, W. Va., Oct. 22.—Mr. Bryan, in a brief speech here today made reference to the letter of President Roosevelt published today in which the President criticised the position of Mr. Bryan and Mr. Gompers on the labor question. The Democratic candidate in explaining the things which he said the Republican platform did not promise to do, and, touching on the labor question, he said:

"The Republican platform does not promise a reconciliation of labor and capital. In fact they now recognize that their antagonistic position on labor organizations has lost them the labor vote, and they realize that so fully, that they have entered upon the denunciation of the man who stands at the head of the labor organizations, and are trying to show that he does not represent the men who elected him to office, and who have been endorsing the position that he has taken in this campaign."

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 22.—Talking to a big crowd of miners here today, Mr. Bryan plunged into a discussion of the Democratic platform, particularly with referenee to the planks relating to guaranty of bank deposits and labor.

On the labor question, Mr. Bryan said that eight years ago the Republican claim was that the laboring man had a fuller dinner pail. "That, my friends," he said, "was the sign, the emblem, the banner. I saw pictures of the full dinner pail wherever I went, but I have not seen any this year. I have just heard of one man who tried to carry a dinner pail in a parade and that was down here in this State, and they arrested him for it."

"He ought to have been hung," shouted a miner.

"No, my friends," said Mr. Bryan, continuing, "that bottom is out, the pail is empty and the people deceived eight years ago are embittered by that disappointment."

CLEVELAND LETTER ALLEGE FORGERY

Writer Who Sold Misleading Statement to New York Times is Arrested.

BLADENBURG IS IN JAIL

Letter Predicting the Election of Taft and Given Wide Publicity Was Investigated by New York Jury.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 22.—As he was boarding a train for New York City here this afternoon, Broughton Brandenburg, was arrested by local detectives on the charge of forgery and grand larceny. A telegram from New York City police department advised the local department to hold Brandenburg. He is alleged to have sold the New York Times a letter which he represented to have been written by Grover Cleveland, in which the dead statesman predicted the election of Taft and which letter is now declared to have been a forgery.

Brandenburg was locked up in the police station, as the amount of his bail was not fixed. It was said by his attorney tonight that if his client was not released tomorrow he will institute habeas corpus proceedings.

In a statement issued tonight Mr. Brandenburg says he had the proper authority from Mrs. Cleveland and from Mr. Hastings co-executor of the Cleveland estate, before he sold the article to the Times, and furthermore asks if it is reasonable that any sane man would falsify the utterances of an ex-President of the United States for $120. At the time he was arrested he says he was on his way to New York City to give district Attorney Jerome additional evidence. He says the arrest was made by those interested in offsetting the influence of Mr. Cleveland's utterance, who wished to secure a dramatic climax just before election.

Through his attorney Brandenburg tonight issued the following statement: "Yesterday I wired District Attorney Jerome that I had new evidence to present on Friday and as I stepped aboard the train for New York to fullfill my agreement I was arested, though my attorney, Joseph Williams and myself informed the district attorney of my purpose and destination on this journey.

"This allows those who are interested in the offsetting the influence of Mr. Cleveland's article to secure a dramatic climax just before election. The entire matter is all fitting in nicely with Colonel Watterson's plan announced before the article was published, it must be discredited by any means. It remains to be seen if the American people are to be bulldozed on one hand, while I am victimized on the other."

Habeas corpus proceedings are now being brought.

BARON IS HOPEFUL

Believes That Agitation in Near East Will Soon Die Out.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Budapest, Oct. 22.—In an address today to the Foreign Affairs Committee, of the Austro-Hungarian delegations, Baron von Aehrenthal, the foreign minister, denied that the negotiations between Austria-Hungary and Turkey relative to the provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina and the Sanjak of Novipazar have been proven off as reported in some newspapers. The Baron's speech generally was hopeful. He said that Austria-Hungary in principle had no object on to an International Congress provided the programme was pre-aranged and in accordance with Austria-Hungary views. He added he believed that the present agitation in Servia soon would die out.

Constantinople, Oct. 22.—There is a hitch in the negotiations between the Turkish government and the Bulgarian envoys owing to Turkey's insisting upon the capitalization of the Rumelian tribute, to which Bulgaria declines to accede.

London, Oct. 23.—The Sofia correspondent of the Daily Mail states that the Bulgarian envoys to Constantinople are returning to Sofia, their missions having failed. The government, however, is still hopeful of reaching an agreement with Turkey.

BOTH CANDIDATES SAME DAY.

National Bureaus Re-arrange Bryan and Taft Speeches.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 22.—Chairman Hitchcock, of the Republican National committee was detained most of the day at his hotel, where he saw a number of visitors, among them being Charles P. Taft, of Ohio, and several leaders in nearby States.

Having discovered today that the schedules prepared would bring Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan together at Port Chester, N. Y., next Monday, the Republican and the Democratic National committees through their publicity bureaus, re-arranged their dates with the result that Mr. Bryan will speak at that place in the morning of Monday and Mr. Taft will make his address there at 3 o'clock the same afternoon.

The North Carolina Pine Association controlling the large lumber mills in Eastern Virginia, Maryland, North and South Carolina, met in Norfolk yesterday in semi-annual session, President E. C. Fosburgh, presiding. The reports of the officers showed the association to be in good condition with many new members added. Trade discussions were a feature of the session.

ROBBER SHOT JEWELER

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 22.—An audacious robbery and possibly murder occurred here tonight. Maurice Tannenholz, a Lexington avenue jeweler, was shot by an unknown man who had posed as "a friend" of Constant A. Andrews, president of the United States Savings Bank of this city, and has stolen two diamond earrings. The robber escaped in a taxacab and the jeweler was removed dying, to a hospital. He has three bullet wounds in the abdomen.

Tennenholz was in his shop when a man entered and handed him a typewritten letter addressed to him and purporting to be from President Andrews. It introduced the bearer as George H. Leopold, an "old personal friend." It further stated that Leopold had $2,000 to invest in diamonds. Never doubting the authenticity of the letter, Tannenholz showed Leopold a tray of diamonds. The stranger selected the earrings and then suddenly ran from the store Tannenholz and two clerks pursued him so hotly that the former soon grabbed him by the shoulder. Then, the robber drew revolver, fired at Tannenholz and sprang into the taxicab, which was standing near the store. The chauffeur of the machine was undoubtedly a confederate, for he sent it flying down the street on the instant, and it had disappeared long before the police reached the scene.

The forest fire which yesterday caused the explosion of two nitroglycerine magizines containing 400 gallons of the explosive is under control last night and the third magizine which was manaced during the afternoon is now considered out of danger. While the explosion was plainly felt at Beaver, 12 miles down the Ohio river, and slightly in Pittsburg, twenty miles away, only two persons were hurt and their injuries are slight. The damage is estimated at $15,000.
